THE YALI CENTER AT KU

YALI REGIONAL LEADERSHIP CENTER

- KU is the East African Region YALI Center
- The Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) was launched by the United States government as a signature effort to invest in the next generation of African leaders.
- Did you know that nearly 1 in 3 Africans are between the ages of 10 and 24, and approximately 60% of Africa's total population is below the age of 35.
- Who will empower and lead these young Africans? Who will shape the future of business and entrepreneurship, civic leadership, and public management? YALI promotes three models designed to identify and empower young leaders through:
  - Fellowship opportunities through the YALI Mandela Washington Fellowship,
  - Network opportunities through the YALI Network
  - Establishment of Regional Leadership Centers across Africa. KU hosts the East African region.
- To learn more about the three components of YALI, please view this video <https://www.facebook.com/U.S.EmbassyNairobi/videos/10153783687858694/>.

History

- Kabete National Polytechnic is the oldest polytechnic in Kenya serving 13500 students
- It has a rich history that dates back to 1924 when the colonial Government started it as a Native Industry Training Depot
- It was later converted to a recruiting barracks for soldiers during the 2nd World war (1939 – 1945) after which the institute reverted to a school that offered three years of Trade courses for Primary Levels Education
- Later when Kenya attained independence, it was converted to a National Technical Secondary School known as Kabete Technical High School
- It was upgraded to Kabete Technical Training Institute in 1985
- In 2015 it became ISO certified as a National Polytechnic in the Republic of Kenya.
